Description As a user waiting for AI response I want to see engaging feedback during thinking So that I know the system is working and don't think it's frozen Description: Improve the thinking/loading animation during AI response: Current: Simple "..." with pulse animation Improved ideas: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Terminal cursor: Blinking cursor effect2. Typewriter effect: Characters appearing one by one3. Matrix rain: Subtle falling characters in background4. Scanning line: Horizontal line moving across message box Choose one or combine: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Primary: Typing indicator with cycling dots• Secondary: Subtle scanline effect on chat box Tech Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• CSS animations only• Should not block UI• Graceful degradation for reduced motion Story Points: 1 Acceptance Criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Animation plays during AI response• Animation stops when response received• Respects prefers-reduced-motion
